Kingston Reid is proud to be hosting "Australia's Future Workplace Law Summit", where key voices shaping Australia's future workplaces will delve into the impacts of recent and proposed legislative changes as well as broader employment trends and the economic climate.

Join Australia's key political, union and employer group representatives as they discuss the implementation of reforms arising from the Secure Jobs (Better Pay) Amendments, together with the proposed Closing Loopholes Bill.

This is your chance to hear from key decision makers and stakeholders and to join in these discussions given the importance of both reforms.
